Bob Jajko is an Intuition development trainer, and is one of Australia's leading experts on the topic of Intuition. As a consultant he works with small, medium and large businesses as well as individuals, offering insights into personal and business goals, decisions and strategies. In addition, he teaches them to enhance their present intuitive skills for assessing information and problem solving.

He teaches that intuition is a ready source of direction available to all of us: an invisible intelligence that animates our world and helps guide our lives. When we follow our intuition we find success, peace and joy. Bob demonstrates that we all have the ability to access this power and build it for practical use in every day life, as well as for achieving long term goals.

Bob Jajko and the New Vision Institute have developed the INTuition Mastery Program™. This unique system trains people to expand their intuitive and creative abilities.

"Tom Scott, co-founder of Nantucket Nectars, believes that his 'cluelessness' at the beginning of running his business helped him do things that he never would have done had he known more about the business or been taught how to do things right. So stop to ask yourself: If I were clueless, what would I do next?"

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How will intuition increase my profits?

Intuition has been shown and proven by research and analysis that companies with leaders who use intuition consistently grow and are more profitable than their counterparts.

These companies use intuitive based decision making in every strategic area of their business.

When I am stressed and need to make a decision quickly how can I access my intuition?

Stress impairs clarity. You should find a quiet space or place where you can let go of the stress, so that you can take your mind off the problem. Then when you are re/axed you can get the 'aha' experience. The side effect of enhanced intuitive training is the ability to sense and see situations in a different light. People with this ability rarely have stress problems.

How do I know if my intuition is accurate?

The core issue here is trust. Simply put, most people do not recognize intuition, let alone trust themselves to act on it. An enhanced intuitive ability means being able to act on an insight with complete knowing and trust, and seeing an accurate outcome each time.

If I am not a creative person, how is intuition going to help me be more creative?

Intuition and creativity are two doorways to the same house. Both are available and both are useable. It is only when our minds can be still, that we can access our right brain. This is where all our creativity is accessed.
